As a Project Manager, you may tend to stay behind the scenes and let sales and marketing focus on networking

Think again!

Everyone needs networking skills regardless of job title or position to open doors

As a Project Manager you can build your reputation as the "Go-To" person when there is a crisis at your company if you have access to experts who can help you get resolution fast

Don't get caught with your network down - this session will help you get ahead!

With more than 25 years managing projects in the design and construction industry, Heath has had the opportunity to not only become a student of leadership, but a practitioner as well. Heath has presented to audiences all over the world, including Bechtel Corporation, AECOM, Skanska, The Project Management Institute, The Association for the Advancement of Cost Engineering, and the Construction Specifications Institute.

PMI New Jersey Chapter (PMINJ)

PMINJ provides opportunities to PMINJ members to enhance their professional growth in the field of Project Management, fosters an environment that promotes networking and collaboration, and participates in outreach efforts to serve the NJ community.
